The Summers/McDougall School Trophy

The Summer McDougall trophy was added to the Interschool Queensland end of year awards to help build the spirit of interschool so both emerging and established schools can be considered equally despite the number of riders attending events.

The Summer McDougall trophy will be elected by a committee of 3 people (independent to any Interschool Queensland or regional committee members) that regularly attend IQ events that will be elected at the beginning of the calendar year by the Interschool Queensland state committee. These will preferably not be IQ parents.

Points are to be allocated to schools as per the following criteria

- • Spirit and Presentation 25
- • Teamwork/competing in multi discipline 25
- • Holding events such as Camps and Events 25
- • Competing and supporting local/regional and States 25
