

Steward's Corner
Lesley Sullivan – FEI Steward (Level 2)

Snaffle Bridles

Effective 1 January 2017, snaffle bridles may be worn in dressage competitions at all levels including Advanced and all EA FEI level PSG to GP. The following are just some of the snaffle bridles are 'permitted' to be used at dressage events as per the Equipment Annex.

Please note that as per Annex 15 (page 8) added padding on bridles is 'NOT Permitted'.

Stubben Freedom Bridle – 'Permitted'

Fairfax Drop with Chin & Jaw Strap – 'Permitted'

Micklem Bridle – 'Permitted'

Micklem Bridle with clips – 'NOT Permitted'

St Zaum Bridle – 'Permitted'

*PS of Sweden High Jump Bridle – 'Permitted'
(must have a throat lash attached)*

*PS of Sweden Jump Off Bridle – 'Permitted'
(must have a throat lash attached)*

Cavesson Noseband – 'Permitted'

Cavesson with Flash Strap – 'Permitted'