The Sharon Doe Memorial Rider's Trophy for Riders under 25

Background

Sharon Doe was a highly successful young Queensland dressage rider, who competed in and won numerous dressage championships up to and including FEI level.

The Sharon Doe Memorial Rider's Trophy was donated by Marion and Edgar Lichtwark in memory of Sharon Doe, who was a rider who simply loved to ride. It never mattered to Sharon what she rode, she just loved to be astride a horse. She always said she felt happiest when she was riding. All those who remember Sharon remember the lightness and harmony with which she rode her horses. The Sharon Doe Memorial Rider's Trophy event has been formatted along the lines of the European Riders Championship.

Guidelines for Entering

- This is a rider class, and is to be judged on the rider, not the horse.
- It is open to riders up to the age of 25 years old (Entries will be accepted from other states)
- Horses and riders must both be registered with Equestrian Australia.
- Horses must be eligible to compete Prix St Georges (i.e. have achieved 2 scores of 60% or more at Official Advanced level). Riders will be required to perform movements up to Prix St Georges level, as determined by the judges on the day. The layout of the performance is to be choreographed by the rider, to best highlight their skills.

Prizes: Perpetual trophy, rug and keepsake trophy for the winner: Keepsake Rosette for all class entrants.

Entry Fee: $60

Format of the Competition

Riders will meet with the judges one hour prior to the class. The judges will inform the riders of what movements they wish to see the riders perform. The riders are to go away and choreograph their test to best highlight their skills and capabilities. The time allowed for each test is approximately that of a regular Prix St Georges test. After the rider has finished their test, they will immediately meet with the judges, who will provide the rider with helpful and positive feedback on their performance. After addressing the rider, the judges will address the audience regarding the performance of the rider, bearing in mind the purpose of this class is to encourage young riders.
