

Dianne Brown Memorial Champion Young Horse of the Year

The Dianne Brown Trophy was donated in memory of Dianne - wife of John, mother of Karen Brown and Kaylene Guettler and grandmother of Terry and Ryan.

Dianne was known for her special love and empathy for both young people and young horses. She was a keen show jumper, discovering a passion for dressage in her later years.

Dianne was tragically killed on 28th January, 2001 while driving home after her first ride on her young horse RR True North.

RR True North was ridden by Ron Patterson as a 4 year old in Dianne's memory and was subsequently sold to Germany.
