The Sharon Doe Memorial Rider's Trophy for Riders 14 to 25 years of age

Background

Sharon Doe was a highly successful young Queensland dressage rider, who competed in and won numerous dressage championships up to and including FEI level.

The Sharon Doe Memorial Rider's Trophy was donated by Marion and Edgar Lichtwark in memory of Sharon Doe, who was a rider who simply loved to ride. It never mattered to Sharon what she rode, she just loved to be astride a horse. She always said she felt happiest when she was riding. All those who remember Sharon remember the lightness and harmony with which she rode her horses. The Sharon Doe Memorial Rider's Trophy event has been formatted along the lines of the European Riders Championship.

Guidelines for Entering

- This is a rider class, and is to be judged primarily on the rider, the effectiveness of aids and ability to technically execute a test.
- It is open to riders up to the age of turning 25 years old in this calendar year (not limited to Qld riders).
- Horses and riders must be registered with Equestrian Australia.
- Approximate level of test difficulty is Advanced/Prix St Georges

Prizes: Perpetual trophy and rug for the winner: Keepsake Rosette for all class entrants.

Entry Fee: $60

Format of the Competition

Riders will ride the FEI Young Rider Preliminary Test (approximately Advanced level, can be found on the FEI website). One judge sitting at C will assess the technical element of the test while two judges sitting at E or B will assess the rider for seat and effectiveness of aids. After the rider has finished their test, they will immediately meet with the sideline judges, who will provide the rider with helpful and positive feedback on their performance. After addressing the rider, the judges will address the audience regarding the performance of the rider, bearing in mind the purpose of this class is to encourage young riders.
