

2022 Show Horse Queensland Leaderboard

Show Horse Queensland's goal is to award and recognise Show Horse Riders and Horses who are successfully competing across Show Horse Queensland events.

To be eligible for the Show Horse Queensland Leaderboard, riders must be Equestrian Queensland current participant or competitive members and the horse must have full life registration, with the owner or lessor being a current financial member. NOTE: Newcomer & HOTY requirement is competitive membership for all participants.

The Show Horse Queensland Leaderboard allows for multiple horse and rider combinations. The combination receiving the highest cumulative points from each of the following categories will be awarded champion within each of the following divisions and presented at the Equestrian Queensland Annual Awards evening.

Commencement of 2022, point accumulation will begin from 01/01/2022 and cease at the last advertised Show Horse Queensland event in 2022.

Once the year has commenced, accumulated points will be allocated in either Show Horse or Show Hunter Divisions, not both. Horse/Rider combinations cannot have mixture of points for Hunter and Show Horse.

In the case of equality within any of the division, results for either Champion, Reserve or Supreme Champion may determine the final Champion.

The Owner Rider definition which forms part of the Show Horse Queensland By-laws, can be found by following the link provided HERE.

In the case of equality within any height division results for either Champion, Reserve or Supreme Champion may determine the final Champion.
