5. Rules for the Teams competition:

Organisation:

- Ideally at least 3 teams should take part in this competition for it to be conducted under these competition rules.

Course and Obstacles:

- The competition takes place over two rounds, over the same course on same day.
- The competition is judged under Table A not against the clock with a time allowed in both rounds calculated at 350mpm or 325mpm (Group C).

2021 Greg Grant Saddlery IQ & PCQ Showjumping Invitational

- If the Ground Jury decides that the course has been rendered impracticable as result of unforeseen circumstances, it may direct that the dimensions of some obstacles be reduced or that they be moved slightly and/or that the required speed is reduced.
- In consultation with the Course Designer, the Ground Jury may also direct that the dimensions of some obstacles be increased for the second round, if it is deemed that the course of the first round was too easy.
- No combination obstacle may require more than three jumping efforts (except in the case of permanent obstacles, banks, mounds or slopes at outdoor events. The course must include at least one double or one treble combination, but not more than three doubles or one double and one treble combination.

Participation in Teams Competition:

- A full team comprises four (4) riders each riding the same horse throughout the competition. A team may consist of three (3) riders.
- The best three scores to count.
- All team members of each team must take part in the first and second round except as stated below.
- If a team comprising four riders cannot improve its placing in the first or second round, after the third rider has completed his course, the fourth rider may be withdrawn.
- When a team can only provide three riders, all three must start.
- The Team Manager will declare the starting order of their riders, which is kept for both rounds.
- The substitution of an individual rider into a team is permitted in the case of illness or accident where the maximum number of team members allowed to participate is four.

Order of starting:

- The starting order of teams in the first round is determined by a draw.
- The number 1 rider of each team start first, then all the number 2 riders, and so on. The Team Managers of teams comprising only three riders may choose in which of the three positions out of four they will start their riders.
- The starting order of teams in the second round will be in the reverse order of total penalties in the first round of the best 3 riders in each team.
- In the case of equality of penalties, the teams will retain the starting order of the first round.
- Competitors in each team start in the same order as for the first round.
- If one or more members of the team are eliminated or retire in the first round, they proceed to the second round with a score of 20 penalties added to the score of the rider with the most penalties still remaining in the competition. E.g. 20 + ? (say 28) = 48 penalties for eliminated rider.

Placings:

- Placings of teams not taking part in the second round is based on the total penalties of the three best riders of each team in the first round. Teams with equality of penalties are placed according to the fastest combined time of the team, calculated by adding the times of the best three riders.
- Placings of teams after the second round is decided as follows:
 - The total penalties of the three best riders per team in the first round are added to the total penalties of the best three riders per team in the second round (can be different riders).
- In the case of equality of penalties for first place, there will be a jump-off in which ONE rider per team will participate. The Team Manager determines which member of the team will participate in the jump-off. Any one of the four team members may take part in the jump-off.
 - The jump-off takes place against the clock over a minimum of six obstacles.
 - In the case of equality of penalties and time after the jump-off, the teams concerned will be placed equal first.
- Other teams with equality of penalties in the second round are placed according to the fastest combined time of the team, calculated by adding the times of the best three riders.
- A team which is qualified to take part in the second round, and withdraws from the second round, the team will be placed last.
- A team which takes part in the second round but is eliminated or retires, is placed ahead of teams not participating in the second round.
