Carriage Driving Clinic with Max Pearce 12 & 13 March 2016

Workshop Information

Carriage Driving Queensland, through Warwick and District Carriage Driving Club Inc., is offering a follow up seminar and clinic over two days for carriage drivers, officials and potential officials on Saturday 12 & Sunday 13 March 2016 at 'Strongfield Stud' Southbrook to embed and build on learnings from our very successful Max Pearce Workshops in 2015.

Once again, workshop facilitator for the weekend will be National Carriage Driving Chair, Max Pearce.

Content discussed over the weekend will relate to EA/FEI carriage driving (combined driving) and will expand on the technical aspects and course design of competition carriage driving and training, and current FEI rule interpretations.

Carriage driving workshop will include:

- Developing the driving aids to improve competition standard and performance Dressage, cones and marathon driving – from the driver and officials perspective

The weekend will have a mix of group and individual sessions and each day will start at 8am. Fence sitters are welcome and Max will be using a wireless microphone.

Venue : Strongfield Stud, 440 Linthorpe Valley Road, Southbrook (No dogs allowed)
Camping and yards are available and people are welcome to camp Friday and Saturday night.

Entry Fees :
